OCTOBER! TIME TO THINK ABOUT XMAS!

That's right, this is the time to start thinking about which books you would like to gift this year for Christmas. I know it is a bit early but there has been much talk about the forthcoming supply-chain issues this season!! We have been dealing with shipping and warehouse delays, stock backorders and reprinting issues for the past year, but it is about to get worse. Pre-order with us anytime to make sure you get your wonderful gifts in time for Christmas. We will be happy to help you navigate the new releases coming out in November and December. Don't be shy! Come visit us or email us with your list and we will make sure you get what you need for the holidays :)

Sorry to put you to work! Haha! But now you can enjoy the new releases and events for October :) Happy reading!!!

LOCAL AUTHORS NEW RELEASES!!

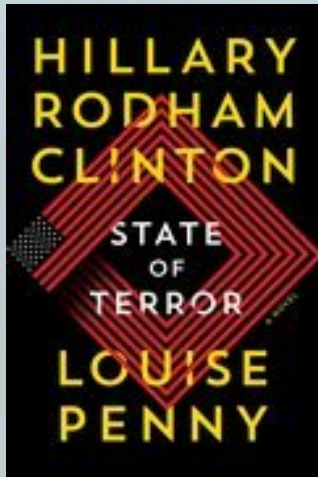

Nanaimo resident explores the extremely complex issue of homelessness and her new book on the topic (juvenile non-fiction) comes out Oct.12th. As a former homeless-shelter worker, author Lois Peterson encourages young people to approach the issue with knowledge and compassion.

Haley Healey, author of the bestsellers On Their Own Terms and Flourishing and Free, is releasing a new novel! After a tragic coal mine accident and the loss of her husband, Hannah discovers a box under her bed containing a useful device that may save her, her three children, and her beloved home. But being a female business owner in frontier era British Columbia is harder than she expected and she may have to risk everything, including her dignity, to do it.

NEW RELEASES THIS MONTH

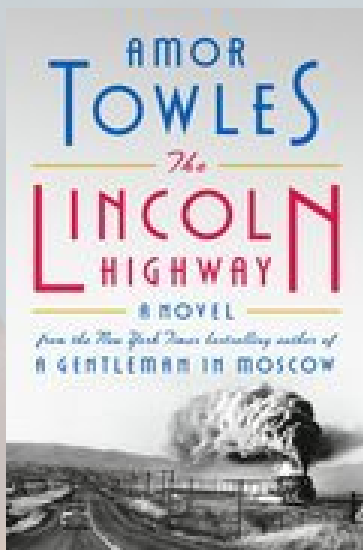

State of Terror

by Hillary Rodham Clinton and Louise Penny

Hillary is a smart lady, teaming up with the supreme goddess of mysteries for this suspenseful political thriller!!! I know a few of you who will be excited :)

Releases October 12

The Lincoln Highway

by Amor Towles

Remember how amazing A Gentleman of Moscow was?? Well...lucky for us Amor Towles has kept writing :) Let us see what he does with this novel set in 1950's America...probably nothing we could imagine.

Releases October 5

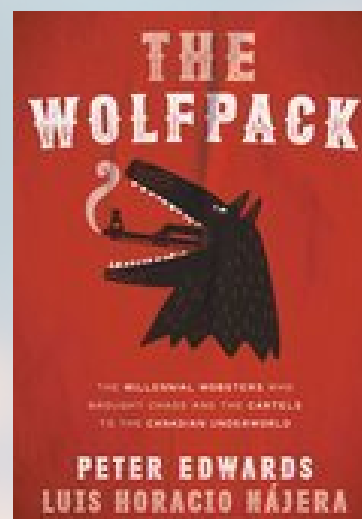

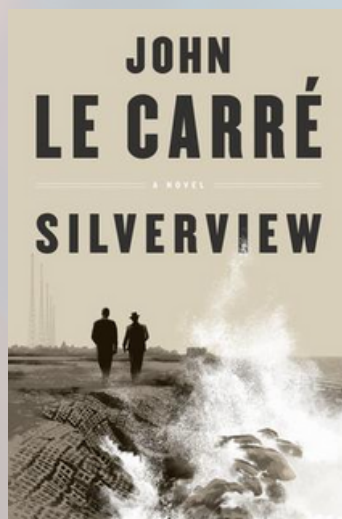

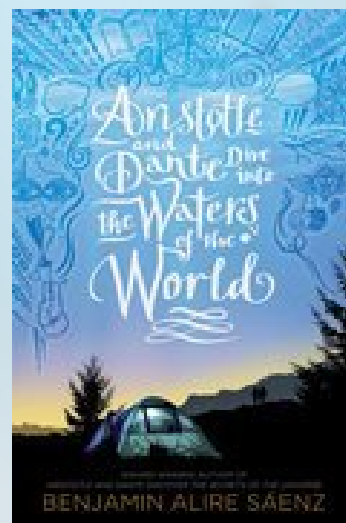

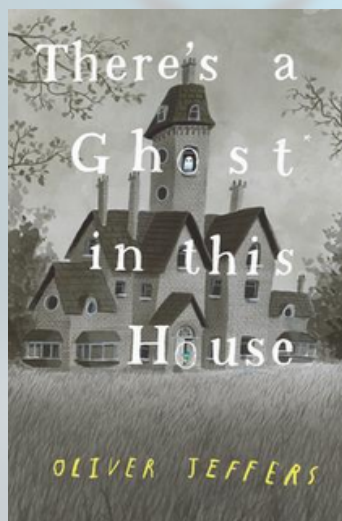

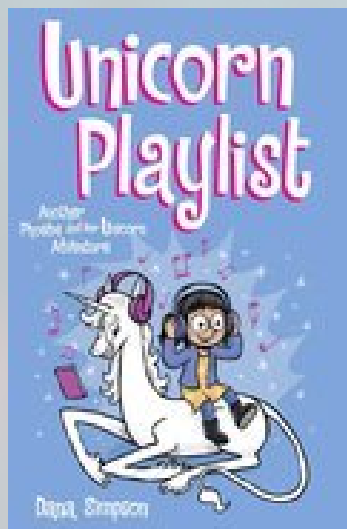

Hunting By Stars

by Cherie Dimaline

The thrilling follow-up to The Marrow Thieves, about a dystopian world where the Indigenous people of North America are being hunted for their bone marrow and ability to dream.

ADVENTURES WITH WINDOWSEATS BOOKS

I can't believe we're making our November list already...

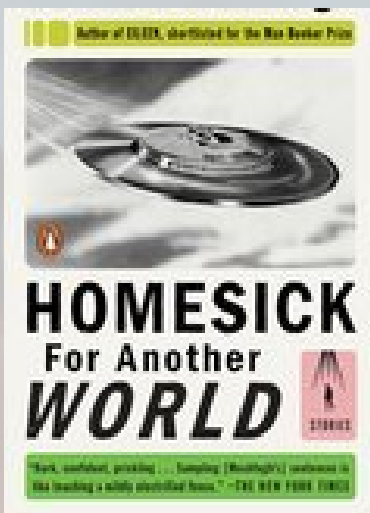

Murakami T: The T-Shirts I Love

by Haruki Murakami

Here's the thing: we love authors. They're weirdos. And we love weirdos here. Why wouldn't we want to read about them? Even if it is through the t-shirts they wear? In typical Murakami style; a book that is strange and enchanting.

(Releases November 16)

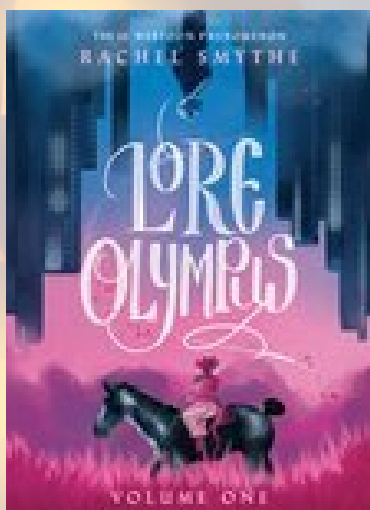

Homesick for Another World

by Ottessa Moshfegh

Changing it up a bit this month! Let us go on adventures with older books that are fantastic :) I adored this collection of short stories, that describes that part of us we may not talk about too often...that part that gets tired, a bit hopeless and wishing life was different.

(Already released!)

Lore Olympus

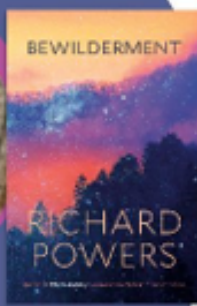

by Rachel Smythe

Scandalous gossip, wild parties, and forbidden love—witness what the gods do after dark in this stylish and contemporary reimagining of one of the best-known stories in Greek mythology. Graphic Novel!!!!

(Releases Nov. 2)
